

PSHE: Relationships

Summer A

Year 3

Unit Learning Intentions

PSHE	To understand about family and friends' roles and responsibilities and how having responsibilities makes you feel.
social and emotional	Learning how to help themselves and others when they are upset or hurt and to know what makes a good relationship.

How does it fit in with our school values?

- Safe
- Honest
- Enthusiastic
- Encouraging
- Respectful
- Hard-Working
- Ambitious
- Tolerant
- Caring
- Happy

Key words	Explanation
unisex	to be suitable for both sexes (male and female) stereotype	an inaccurate idea held by many about a person career	the work a person chooses to do through life responsibilities	being responsible conflict	to disagree strongly solution	a way of fixing a problem, making things better risky	involving a risk of getting hurt or losing something global	all around the world
communication	sharing and exchanging or messages, information and ideas
fair trade	an agreement by a seller to pay a fair wage to workers in developing countries inequality	not being equal exploitation	unfair use of people or things for own advantage justice	being fair just and right
deprivation	not having something that is needed (food, shelter, safety) appreciation	being thankful for something or someone hardship	being in great want, suffering or difficulty gratitude	the feeling of being thankful

Reflective Questions

- How can you solve a friendship problem?
- How can you keep yourself safe online?
- How might my life be different to other children around the world?