

In art, we will focus on:

- using the work of Georges Seurat to inspire our own
- using colour and texture to show feelings and emotions about places
- learning how to sculpt sand

In English we will focus on writing for: diaries, stories and to persuade.

Curriculum Topic Overview:
Hooray, Let's Go on Holiday!
OTTERS
Summer Term

In Maths this term, we will focus on:

- measuring length and height
- position and direction
- time
- capacity and temperature

In Geography, we will focus on:

- using atlases and our knowledge of the continents to locate hot and cold holiday destinations
- comparing geographical features of holiday destinations
- understanding how people can damage these places
- using aerial maps
- creating our own maps with a key

In Computing, we will focus on:

- creating typed documents
- creating bar graphs

During our music unit we will learn about: Big Band, Motown, Elvis, Freedom Songs, Rock, Reggae, Pop and Soul.

In History, we will focus on how and why holidays have changed over time.

In Science we will focus on:

- features and uses of materials
- the parts of a flower